New Managing Director at Jane James & Associates

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Lucinda Lloyd as the new Managing Director of Jane James & Associates.

Lucinda steps into the role following a carefully planned transition from Jane James, who has led the organisation with distinction for over 35 years. This change marks an exciting new chapter for the business, ensuring continuity while embracing fresh leadership.

Jane will continue to contribute her expertise as an Expert Witness, maintaining a close connection with the work she is passionate about, while Luci focuses on driving the business forward and building on its long-standing success.

This transition reflects our commitment to delivering the highest standards of service to our clients in the personal injury and clinical negligence sectors. We look forward to working with you under Luci's leadership and continuing to provide the trusted expertise you expect from Jane James & Associates.

Spotlight on Our New Experts

Heather has over 38 years of experience in neurorehabilitation and personal injury, working across the Health Service, Social Services, and the Independent Sector. Starting as an Occupational Therapist, she gained expertise in brain injury and neurological conditions through clinical roles and senior management positions.

She founded Reach Personal Injury Services Ltd in 1995, developing a national home-based rehabilitation service for adults and children with head trauma, TBI, concussion, and Functional Neurological Disorder (FND).

She is widely published, lectures internationally on FND and TBI, and serves as a Trustee of a brain injury charity and Chair of NABIF.

Heather works for Jane James & Associates as an Independent Expert Witness, taking instructions from both Claimant and Defendant firms for full care reports, aids and equipment reports, and neurorehabilitation reports.
